

SHERMAN JURY IS IMPANELED

The Taking of the Testimony in the Case Was Begun on Saturday.

Judge Declines to Ask State to Elect Indictment on Which to Try Prisoner.

Shortly before 5 o'clock Friday evening in the case of the State of Ohio against Charles V. Sherman, now on trial at Hamilton, O., the State passed the jury with one pre-emptory challenge unexhausted which Prosecutor Woodruff wanted to reserve the right to exercise in case a new juror was called. This defense asked the court to make an order denying to the prosecution the right to the challenge after the jury had been passed by the State. The court ruled that the State must exhaust the challenge or waive it in passing the jury and the prosecution relinquished the exercise of the challenge and agreed to the jury. Upon the adjournment of court Friday evening two pre-emptory challenges remained to the defense and the probabilities were that a jury would be secured on Saturday.

Upon the opening of the case Saturday the defense exhausted the two pre-emptory challenges remaining and at 9:50 o'clock a. m. the defense passed the jury which was at once sworn in. The indictment was then read to the jury. It charges that on August 24, 1904, Charles V. Sherman unlawfully, purposely and of deliberate and premeditated malice made an assault upon his wife, Mayme Sherman with a certain wooden chair and hatchet, beat her about the head and inflicted certain mortal wounds of which she died.

Upon the conclusion of the reading of the indictment the defense filed a motion to require the prosecution to elect which count of the indictment would be proceeded upon, the one alleging the killing to have been done with a chair or the one alleging the murder to have been committed with a hatchet. The court overruled the motion and the prosecution proceeded upon both counts contained in the indictment. Neither the prosecution nor the defense made any opening statements to the jury as to what was expected to be proven, the witnesses for the State were called and sworn and the first witness to take the stand was W. H. Connery, of Clermont county, O., the father of the murdered woman, Mayme V. Sherman. He testified generally that he was the father of the late Mrs. Sherman and to the excellence of her character. Court adjourned at noon until this morning at 9 o'clock.

SENATOR MOORE

Says Matter is Virtually Settled Regarding the Probable New District.

(Connersville News.)

E. E. Moore, of Connersville, joint senator from Fayette, Henry and Union counties, spent Sunday with his family in this city. He says it is more than probable that the new Senatorial District will be Fayette, Rush and Hancock counties. He says that the re-districting will in no wise affect his rights as a hold-over Senator, but had the district been made of Wayne and Fayette counties it would have been awkward as it would have thrown two hold-over Senators into the same territory. Senator Moore says that he, in common with the majority of members of the legislature, are always glad to have expression from the people at home on measures that they favor in the form of letters, petitions and even telegrams. He says it acts as a "bracer," besides prompting a feeling of pride in those constituents who know what they want done by their representatives.

LOOKING FOR BLUEBEARD

A Close Net is Set for Alleged Many-Times Wife-Murderer.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Information as to the probable whereabouts of Johann Hoch, the German who is said to have had a new wife for every month in the year, and who is wanted in Chicago on a charge of wife-murder, has been received from all parts of the country. The best clue came from New York, where a man answering Hoch's description applied for transportation at the office of the German steamship lines. No Chicago detective has been sent to New York, but the New York authorities have been requested to watch all the Eastern ports to prevent the escape of the alleged bigamist should he attempt to return to his native country.

"It will be but a short time now until we will have Hoch in custody," said Chief of Police O'Neil. "We have communicated with the police of nearly every large city in the country and requested them to be on the lookout for the fugitive. He will have to be a pretty shrewd man to escape the network that we have thrown around him."

ATTEMPTED TO BOARD A TRAIN

John Stair of Connersville Narrowly Escaped Death at C. H. & D. Depot.

A man giving his name as John Stair, and his residence as Connersville, Ind., met with a narrow escape from death at the C. H. & D. depot Sunday evening in an attempt to board a moving passenger train.

Stair came to this city and took it upon himself to get into a badly intoxicated condition. In the evening he thought he would return to Connersville and he went to the C. H. & D. depot with the intention of leaving on east-bound train No. 33, due here at 5:53 p. m.

When Stair arrived at the depot the train was leaving the station and he ran to the east end of the platform and attempted to board the front end of the smoking car. The vestibule was closed, however, and he was unable to get up the steps. Owing to his drunken condition and the motion of the train, he was compelled to let go his hold and be dropped to the edge of the platform, from which he rolled to the ground between the edge of the platform and the rail. The trainmen saw the accident and stopped before any injury resulted.

In the fall the man's arm fell across the rail, but he jerked it away in time to save it. Stair rose to his feet and picked up his hat. The blood poured from a deep gash across the back of his head, and he seemed badly dazed. He acted in a sullen manner, but after giving his address stated that he was a butcher by trade. He left on the 8:03 train for Connersville.

GREENFIELD FIRE

An overheated stove caused a fire in the basement of the Herald printing office at Greenfield Sunday afternoon, and for a while threatened the complete destruction of the building. The telephone girls employed in the exchange of the Hannah-Jackson Telephone company, which occupies the second floor of the building, were compelled to leave their posts and make their way down the stairway through a dense smoke. The damage to the building will not exceed $300, and is fully covered by insurance.

AGAIN IN TROUBLE

Houston, Tex., Jan. 30.—Frank C. Lory, alleged to have secured more than $125,000 on gold mine swindles while having headquarters at Danville, Ill., was arrested here Sunday and turned over to M. H. Whitlock, sheriff of Vermillion county, Ill., who held warrants and requisition papers. Lory has been at Calveston for some time past as solicitor of insurance.

THREE MORE CARS ARRIVE

Were Transferred to the Car Barns This Afternoon—the Service.

Men Say Company Will Do Well to Get into Indianapolis in Two Weeks.

Three more new interurban cars have been received in this city by the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company. These cars are numbers 303, 304, and 305, and they are almost exactly like the others. Number 305 arrived here Saturday night over the C. H. D. from St. Louis. Numbers 303 and 304 came in Sunday night over the same route. All three of the cars were transferred this afternoon to the I & C. tracks at the Hackleman switch and were taken at once to the car barns, where they are being set up. The three cars will be "limbered up" and put in commission as soon as it is possible to do so. Supt. Anderson stated today that he could not tell exactly, but he thought that the Morristown service would be resumed on Thursday.

The statement in a local paper recently that the cars would be running into Indianapolis inside of 10 days, is not true. The officials state that there is yet much ballasting to be done along the track especially at the western end and there is yet considerable wiring to be done. The traction men believe that it will be two if not three weeks before cars will be running between this city and the junction with the Shelbyville line. The Indianapolis Star this morning states that the road is now ready for operation, but the Star has things badly jumbled.

Another car is now on the way to this city and when it is received and placed in commission, six cars will have been put to work. With this number of cars it will be possible to establish an hourly service between this city and the junction with the Shelbyville line at the Indianapolis city limits, but considerable time will elapse before it is done.

THE INSTITUTE AT CARTHAGE

Much Interest Was Manifested—the Corn, Potato and Fruit Exhibit.

Special to the Republican

Carthage, Ind., Jan. 30th.—The Farmers' Institute held here Friday and Saturday was a grand success in every particular. From two hundred and fifty to four hundred people attended at each session and great interest was manifested in all the subjects discussed.

Each of the speakers were able to make their subjects of interest to the audience and were each followed by a general discussion which contained much information. Especially was this so in the talks of Mr. Wing, on "Cement on the Farm" and "Alfalfa." The display of farm products was unusually large and very good. There were forty-seven entries of corn alone, besides a fine display of fruits and potatoes.

In short the Institute was a grand success in every way. Steps were taken by the public to make the institute permanent.

Fatal Accident on Santa Fe.

RUSSIANS ARE REPULSED.

The Japanese Overcome Superior Force of the Enemy at Liutako.

Tokio, Jan. 30.—Telegraphic advices received here from the Japanese Manchurian headquarters say: "Our detachments occupied Liutako Saturday and were twice counter-attacked by a superior force of the enemy that night. We entirely repulsed the enemy. Our other detachment at dawn Sunday attacked the enemy in the neighborhood of Feltssaihotzu, about two miles north of Heikoutai, and occupied the position. The enemy fiercely counter-attacked our force which assailed Heikoutai Saturday night, but was repulsed entirely. Sunday our force occupied the neighborhood of Heikoutai. "The enemy in the direction of Lou-talko and Heikoutai has entirely retreated to the right bank of the Hun river. Our force is now pursuing them."

"In the direction of Chenchiehpao and Likajentan the enemy made several attacks Saturday night but were repulsed. The enemy attacking these points belonged to the eighth and tenth corps. In the direction of Heikoutai the enemy is composed of the first and mixed corps of infantry, together with a cavalry division under Gen. Mistchenko. We captured 500 officers and men. The casualties on both sides are under investigation."

DEWITT MILLER

Fourth Number of Rushville Lecture Course at M. E. Church Tonight.

Dewitt Miller, the celebrated lecturer, who gave such universal satisfaction in this city last winter when he gave his lecture "The Self Sufficiency of the Republic," as a number in last year's lecture course, will give his lecture, "Love Courtship and Matrimony," at St. Paul's M. E. church tonight. This lecture comprises the fourth number of this year's lecture course, and is certain to give satisfaction.

FAINTED AWAY.

Mrs. Kate Banta, at 3 o'clock this afternoon was taken suddenly ill in A. W. Tompkins' grocery store, and fainted away. Dr. Dean was summoned and she was taken home in a bus. She is considerably better this evening.

WAS DONE FOR EFFECT

It Now Develops That Gen. Kuropatkin's Reported Victory Was a Defeat.

False News Was Sent to St. Petersburg to Distract Public Attention.

Tokio, Jan. 30.—The Russians are massing about 65,000 troops on the Japanese left and bombarding the left flank and center. Small forces of Russians are attacking all along the line.

Manchurian headquarters of the Japanese army report that on Saturday the Russians occasionally bombarded the right and center armies, following up the bombardment with attacks, which the Japanese immediately repulsed. In the direction of the left wing a Japanese detachment were victors at Chenchiehpao and occupied Liutako and Lichawopeng on Saturday, the Russians retreating north and west.

The Japanese occupied with infantry positions southeast of Heikoutai on Saturday and are now assaulting the main position. Another detachment dislodged a regiment of infantry, a brigade of cavalry and twelve guns occupying Haerhpao, five miles south of Heikoutai.

The Russian strength opposing the Japanese left flank is roughly estimated at eight corps, consisting of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth infantry divisions, the Second and Fifth brigades of European rifles, the Ninth infantry division of the Tenth corps, part of the Sixty-first infantry division, part of the First Siberian corps, and the First and Ninth brigades of rifles.

THE LAW WARNS CAMBRIDGE CITY

Prosecuting Attorney Wilfred Jessup and Deputy Sheriff Jesse Bailey, of Wayne county, went to Cambridge City Saturday and warned every saloon keeper in that place that unless there was a strict observance of the law a grand jury investigation would result. Cambridge City has the reputation of being a wide-open town, and the action of the officers is the result of a determination on the part of the county officers to have a uniform observance of the law in all parts of the county.

A BIG TIME

Local Knights of Columbus Report a Big Crowd at Connersville.

The local Knights of Columbus, about fifty in number, who were at Connersville Sunday and attended the degree work in that city, report a big time. A class of eighty candidates was given the first, second and third degrees of the order. Ten of the eighty who were initiated were from this city and their names are as follows: Patrick J. Cleary, Wm. J. Fitzgerald, Michael Glaska, L. Nathan Horr, J. H. Joyce, John J. Kendall, Edward T. Mullins, Carl O'Neal, Wm. S. Shannahan and Alexander Simmes.

Candidates were initiated into the order were from Rushville, Brookville, Liberty, College Corner, Laurel, Muncie and Connersville.

Rev. P. H. Rowan, of this city, was one of the speakers and had for his subject, "The Church and the Order." The session and initiation lasted all day and was the second in the history of the Connersville lodge. Over 800 visiting knights, representing organizations throughout the State, were present to witness the work.

A special train from Richmond brought a hundred members of the order, and one hundred more were present from Cincinnati.

UNAUTHORIZED SIGNATURE

Sensational Testimonial Looked for in Case of I. & C. vs. Kramer et. al.

Sensational developments are expected in the case of the I. & C. Traction company vs. Harry Kramer, Bert Mullin, Howard Mullin, R. C. Hargrove, R. P. Havens, Ed. Tyner, W. B. Poe, and others [for an alleged failure to pay their promised share of the funds with which the car barn was purchased and donated to the traction company. Two of the men, Messrs. Havens and Tyner, it is said, allege that their names were placed on the paper without any authority from them and they will, it is said, introduce testimony to that effect when the case comes up for trial. The defendants, it is understood, will fight the case. The men who circulated the paper claim, on the other hand, it is said, that they did have authority from the men in question to place their names on the paper.

A VERY FINE COMPLIMENT

Congressman Robinson Says "Our Jim" is Destined For a Big Place.

Congressman "Jim" Robinson is an ardent friend and admirer of "Our Jim" Watson, says a Washington dispatch, and he has given vent to the following high compliment:

"There is not an Indian in Washington, but that is proud of Jim Watson, and his district and State are proud of the record he has made. Though differing radically from Mr. Watson, politically, to his credit I will say that in every respect he has measured up to the high ideal of a Congressman. I hope to see him some day the ranking member of the minority of the ways and means committee, and if we are fortunate enough to be continually afflicted with a Republican House he certainly deserves by his fidelity and sturdy, honest traits to be the chairman of the ways and means committee."

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY

Several nights ago, at Burney, a goat was the innocent cause of much excitement. During her husband's absence, a woman of that town heard a noise at the rear of the house at about midnight, which she thought was made by some one trying to break in. She hastily ran to the telephone and soon had the entire neighborhood out hunting for the burglar. After the search was given up, a closer investigation discovered that the noise was made by a pet goat, which had tried to get into the house by battering down the door.

THE MAN BEHIND

In This Case It Is Sergius
He's Behind Czar's Throne.

RUSSIA'S EVIL GENIUS

Grand Duke Sergius Is Being Given Credit For All That's Worst In Russia Today.

Uncompromising Reactionary Has the Government Completely
Under His Thumb.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 30.—Evidence is accumulating that Emperor Nicholas, throughout the present crisis, has acted largely upon the advice of Grand Duke Sergius who is the most reactionary member of the imperial family, the head of what is denominated the war party, and whom the liberals stigmatize as Russia's evil genius. With the first appearance of Father Gapon in the movement Sergius urged the necessity of putting down the demonstrations in the most energetic manner. Since "bloody Sunday" his hand is considered to have been visible in the appointment of Gen. Trepoft to the governor generalship of St. Petersburg with the exceptional powers conferred upon him.

Grand Duke Sergius is known to be responsible for the charge placed by Chief of Police Roudneff of Moscow, which is causing Foreign Minister Lamsdorff embarrassment and now, it is believed he is about to prevail in the matter of the naming of Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky's successor in the ministry of the interior, M. Bouilgan, formerly governor general of Moscow, who, like his patron, is extremely reactionary. Information from a high source is to the effect that Grand Duke Sergius, more than M. Witte, is responsible for the elimination from the imperial manifesto of Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky's plan for an elected Zemstvos council of the empire.

Against Sergius' influence the ministers at present are apparently powerless. Sergius reigns in the little palace inside the strong ramparts of the Kremlin fortress in Moscow, from whence he dispatches daily couriers to Tsarskoe Selo.

Arrests continue. Among those seized last night and conveyed to St. Peter and St. Paul fortresses were Yakontovich, the poet, who served a term of exile in 1886 for connection with the revolutionaries; Mme. Pimenoff, an aged writer and her daughter.

Father Gapon, it has now been definitely established passed through Finland and was conveyed across the gulf to Sweden by sympathetic Finns. At present he is supposed to be in Stockholm. A story has been started, and which is attributed to the police, that Gapon is a Jew.

The Zemstvos of Sarstov, Nijni Novgorod and Vladimir have adjourned because the St. Petersburg Zemstvos are practically in control of the governmental machinery of the provinces and some of the liberals are trying to induce others to close with the object of further embarrassing the government and compelling it to yield to the demand for the convocation of a constituent assembly.

A marshal of the nobility from one of the central provinces has expressed the opinion that the government could not extricate itself from the present situation without very substantial concessions. He believes that within three months, in the face of thickening troubles it would be obliged to create a Zemskoyzabor. The situation in Poland is increasingly threatening especially in Warsaw and Lodz. In the latter place it is reported 100,000 men are out on strike. There are prospects of extension of the strikes in Odessa and other manufacturing cities of southern Russia where the workmen are better organized and more serious.

Meanwhile practically all classes anticipate renewed terrorism. It is said that when the leaders notified the social democrats that a truce had been proclaimed immediately after the close of the Zemstvos congress they were told that the gauntlet would again be thrown down to the aristocracy, but that this time the sovereign, who was specifically declared to be exempt from danger during the recent activity, as shown in the trial of Sasnoff, the assassin of Minister Von Plehve, would be included in the challenge. Attempts especially are expected upon the officers who a week ago ordered the soldiers to shoot.

The resumption of work here is expected to become general this week. The newspapers very gingerly discuss the tragedy of January 22, and are only able to hint strongly that it might have been avoided if proper measures had been taken in advance.

Warsaw Pillaged by Strikers.

Warsaw, Jan. 30.—The strike disorders are becoming more serious. The ordinary life of the city is quite suspended. On Saturday the strikers stopped the street railway service, but remained otherwise orderly. Sunday, however, they began wholesale pillage. The majority of the shops in Marshal Kowski street and the state vodka shops were looted. All the factories, shops, schools and theaters are closed, and the street lamps are extinguished. There have been several collisions between the police and strikers, and many arrests have been made. Peace-abiding inhabitants are terror-stricken.

Troops Helped by Blizzard.

Moscow, Jan. 30.—The strike is considered to be practically over. A blizzard has rendered excellent service to the authorities in keeping the people indoors, and there is not the slightest disorder on the part of the strikers. The authorities, however, have taken exceptional precautions to avoid the assemblage of crowds. There are about 300,000 troops in the city.

Bomb in Cavalry Barracks.

Czenstochow, Poland, Jan. 30.—A bomb was thrown in the cavalry barracks here Sunday and many soldiers were wounded. The act is supposed to have been in revenge for brutality in dispersing a workmen's meeting.

Father Gapon Denounced.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 30.—Father Gapon, the leader of the St. Petersburg workmen, is reported to have escaped to Stockholm. The holy synod has denounced him as a "criminal priest," a betrayer of his sacred office.

Under Martial Law.

Sebastopol, Jan. 30.—In consequence of the gravity of the situation here the government has invested the naval and military commanders with full powers to repress disorders. Over 900 arrests have been made.

HANDS ACROSS THE SEA

American Writers Are Importuned to Make a Stand for Gorky.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—Dr. Theodore Barth, editor of The Nation, speaking at the meeting of literateurs and artists held here Saturday night to formulate plans to secure the release of Maxim Gorky, the Russian author who is confined in the fortress at St. Petersburg, said he hoped editors, writers and cultivated persons in America would petition the Russian government in Gorky's behalf. Dr. Barth said if Americans should decide to do anything it would be necessary for them to act by cable, as Gorky is in great danger.

The HIGHWAYMAN

(Original.)

One autumn evening in the year 1646, the year after the battle of Naseby, when the royalist cause in England was irretrievably lost and the Cavaliers scattered to the winds, the day coach lumbered along a muddy road between London and Hertford. The occupants were two ladies, mother and daughter, who had been to London to shop and were returning to their home. When daylight and night were mingling the coach was halted, and a masked man, riding up to the window with cocked pistol, looked within to discover the character of the occupants. Upon seeing the two ladies his hat came off and was swung with a grand sweep along his horse's flank, its plume almost touching the road. The hat's removal, besides revealing more perfectly the glossy hair hanging in long curls over the wide lace collar, left uncovered a scar running diagonally across the man's forehead. While there was enough daylight left to show these features, the ladies in the closed coach were but indistinctly visible, especially the younger one, who sat on the opposite side from the highwayman.

"Ladies," he said, "these are unfortunate times. The king's service has given way to service on the road. Nevertheless you have only to say, 'Long live King Charlie!' and you will not be expected to pay toll."

"Long live King Charlie!" gasped the elder woman.

"And what says your companion?" asked the highwayman.

"She says the same," the mother hastened to reply. "We are a royalist family."

But the companion uttered never a word. The robber, who evidently was not in love with his profession, was about to turn away when curiosity prompted him to say:

"Then let her speak."

Still the girl kept silence, drawing farther back into her corner.

"If you are a Roundhead I must ask some contribution to the royalist cause," said the highwayman.

Straightway the girl pulled a ring from her finger and handed it to him. At the moment wheels were heard coming down the road, and the highwayman disappeared.

Two years passed. The younger of the two ladies who had been robbed was one morning handed a letter, which she opened and read:

Written on the 10th of April, 1648, at Paris, in France, to Ruth Spencer at Hertford, in England.

Ruth, My Beloved—I have but a few minutes before the postman rides to say that, my uncle being dead and my cousin having been killed in a brawl, the family estates come to me. I follow this very soon to claim my property and the only girl I have ever loved. Your devoted ROGER.

The girl had scarcely finished reading when the writer, a young Cavalier, entered, flushed with pleasure at seeing her, and was about to advance to take her in his arms when he was stopped by the look with which she regarded him.

"Ruth," he said reproachfully, "have I waited all these years for nothing? Am I to be made miserable when I expected to be made happy?"

"It is several years since I have had any account of your doings, Roger. First assure me that you have not lived as so many of the young royalist officers have lived since the wreck of our hopes. I am told that as many as a hundred captains after Naseby took to the road. It is true they treated the king's adherents kindly, but levied on all Roundheads. Others, I hear, have spent the time no better employed abroad. Tell me, Roger, what have you been doing these three years?"

The young man hung his head.

"Let us skip that wretched period, dear Ruth. There is much in them that is painful for me to remember."

At that moment he caught sight of the girl's finger on which three years before he had placed a circlet of gold.

"Oh, Ruth, you have deserted me for another. You have accepted a pearl in place of my golden circlet."

"No, Roger, I have not. Father gave me the pearl. What you gave you had a right to take again."

"I take again? You speak in riddles."

"Listen. One evening two years ago, just before the November frosts, mother and I were journeying home from London in the day coach when one of those royalists who had turned highwaymen rode up to the coach window to rob us. He took off his hat, and I saw the scar left by the wound that I had myself bound up after the battle."

The young man took a step backward, putting his hand to his forehead convulsively to conceal the telltale scar.

"I would not shout for King Charlie under compulsion," continued the girl, "and as I had no choice but to do so or give up the only thing of value I happened to have with me I took off my ring and gave it to him. Doubtless he has it now."

The young man covered his face with his hands.

"If you would like to return it to me, Roger, I will accept it of you," said the girl kindly. "You fought nobly for your king and only yielded to the same temptation as many others. I am with you in forgetting that dark period and in hoping for a restoration of our legitimate king."

"I did not recognize the ring," moaned the man. "There was no distinctive feature about it by which I would know it."

She went to him, took his hands from before his face and said:

"Now that you are rich you may buy me a better one."

"It shall be the most precious jewel I can find. But the only jewel I shall ever possess is the kind girl who can forgive."

An exceptionally favorable time for a trip South is the special outing for Indiana tourists to be given this midwinter, offering an inexpensive jaunt for health and pleasure seekers to the famous resorts of Florida and the South, and also including two days' participation in the noted Mardi Gras festivities of New Orleans. A solid vestibule Pullman train will leave Indianapolis Union Station 7:00 p. m. on February 27th, over Pennsylvania Lines. Points of interest along the route include famous battlefields—Lookout Mountain, Chickamauga, Atlanta, Savannah, the line of Sherman's "march to the sea," the tour embraces Ormond, the fashionable winter resort; St. Augustine, with its ancient Spanish battlefields—Pensacola, of naval interest; Pass Christian, "The Newport of the South," Mobile, Birmingham, Nashville, with ample time for sight seeing. Two days will be passed in New Orleans during its great Mardi Gras celebration. Eleven days in the sunny South, away from the ice and sleet of the North, and the cost including Pullman, only $55. An English court has handed down a decision to the effect that one who makes his living by working at a trade or following a profession is not a gentleman. We must, therefore, conclude that in England gentlemen are fellows that don't do anything. Over here such chaps are kicked from freight trains and chased by bull dogs. —Ex.

Do you know that the best choruses in New York sing "The Daughter of Jairus," and the great Festival Te Deum, and when you can hear a good presentation of these works at home, and for 25 cents, you surely should buy tickets for yourself and friends and all go.

An exchange remarks that the first visit the fool killer should make this spring is to those parties who so faithfully depicted the winter. They assured us that we would have a beautiful, genial open winter thus causing the poor editors all over the State to have but little coal in the cellar. They should be made to prophesy right or quit the business.

Connersville is again "on its ear." The news that Becker and Lindsay of the Connersville ball club, were slated to play in the Sunday League with Middletown has made the Connersville manager defiant and he claims that the men will play with Connersville in 1905. Poor Connersville!

Greensburg News: If a new Insane Hospital is built by the State, it should be located at this place, as an accommodation to Ripley county. Sheriff Gordon has taken one person a week to the Central Insane Hospital, since he came into office. His predecessor, in his four year term, took eighty persons to that institution. It would not do to locate it in Ripley county, as the superintendent and help might become deranged, hence this place is the nearest safe point for them.—We might suggest that it would, for the same reasons, be well to locate it here at Rushville for the benefit of Connersville people.

REV M'CONNELL'S FOURTH LECTURE

Another Large Audience Gathered at Presbyterian Church Sunday Evening.

Another large audience gathered at the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening to hear the fourth of Rev. T. H. McConnell's series of illustrated lectures on his trip to the Holy Land. The meeting opened at seven o'clock with a short service in which the whole audience heartily took part.

The scriptural reading of Christ's agony in Gethsemane solemnized the viewing of these sacred places where the Savior lived and died. That beautiful duet, "The Lord is my Sight," by Dudley Buck was sung by Mr. Morris and Miss Lucia Wilson, and was deeply appreciated by the audience.

The subject for the lecture was the city of Hebron, but some time was devoted to a description of Jerusalem. A picture was shown of an immense oak tree near Hebron, which is believed by the Mohammedans to be the very tree under which Abraham pitched his tent and entertained the three angelic visitors from the unknown land. Several views and a very interesting talk on the burial place of the ancient patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were enjoyed. The stoning of Stephen outside the city walls was shown in colors. The two different views of the tomb of the Virgin Mary were others which were full of interest.

A fine picture was shown of the Jewish cemetery, which is located on the east side of the valley of Kedron. The place is completely covered by the white stones which mark the graves of Jewish pilgrims, who had found a last resting place in their native land.

Various views of the Garden of Gethsemane were shown, giving the people a very good idea of this sacred place. Views of the Church of the Ascension which the Moslems built on the summit of Mt. Olivet, the place of the ascension closed the lecture. Those who attended this lecture as well as the others, pronounced it as good if not better than the others. There are but four of the lectures yet to be given.
